The National Orange Show Events Center Leases Orange Show Speedway to Best in the West, Inc.

San Bernardino, Calif., February 18, 2009- The National Orange Show Events Center reached an agreement with Best in the West, Inc., to lease the Orange Show Speedway on "E" street in San Bernardino, effective February 18, 2009.

Best in the West Inc. is owned by team owner and former NASCAR driver Rick McCray. McCray was honored by the Orange Show Speedway as Rookie of the year in 1976, and brought his daughter, Toni, to race at the Orange Show Speedway in 2007-- the same year the Orange Show Speedway celebrated its 60th anniversary.

The new management hopes to establish the raceway as one of the premier motorsports venues in the Inland Empire, as well as implement some major capital improvements to the stadium.

"We are confident that Mr. McCray will do a great job with the speedway," commented Dan Jimenez, General Manager at the National Orange Show. "He knows the racing business and has a long history with racing."

The speedway will continue to emphasize a family atmosphere and provide entertainment at affordable prices.
