Fiesta Weekend Brings Cultural Flair to The Festival at the National Orange Show

San Bernardino, Calif, May 19th, 2011: Hispanic-flavored entertainment and activities will take center stage during “Fiesta Weekend” at The Festival at the National Orange Show. Saturday and Sunday’s special activities, sponsored by Morongo Casino Resort and Spa, will include headline entertainment, live radio broadcasts, and a marketplace of FREE games, prizes, and freebies.

Latin Grammy award-winning group, El Coyote y Su Banda Tierra Santa will headline on Saturday, performing in the Orange Pavilion at 7 p.m. Also on Saturday, popular Spanish radio legend Don Cheto will meet and greet the public from 4 to 6 p.m. Other top-rated Que Buena radio personalities will broadcast live from the fairgrounds from 2 to 5 p.m.

Sunday’s main act is up-and-coming Latin singer Irene Davi, who has opened for artists such as Jenni Rivera, Alicia Villarreal, and Freddy Fender.

On Saturday and Sunday, local grocery store chain El Super will host “Su Super” (Your Store), a “family fun zone” with FREE games, prizes, and FREE samples of items like chips, cookies, soft drinks, ice pops, and more. The Chivas Soccer Team will be present both days with a FREE “Soccer Kick” open to children of all ages.
