Scholarship Pageant Crowns Ruthie Bram Miss NOS 2012

San Bernardino, Calif., November 29, 2011- In conjunction with an official local division of the Miss America Organization, the National Orange Show was pleased to crown Ruthie Bram Miss National Orange Show 2012 on November 27, 2011.

Nine contestants competed for the title and scholarship based on overall performance in talent, swimwear, evening gown, and interview competitions as determined by a panel of State Certified and Local Community Judges.

The new queen will reign over the National Orange Show Festival in May of 2012, as well as participate in various events throughout the year with the National Orange Show Organization. The crown also qualifies Miss Bram to compete for Miss California in June of 2012.

The scholarship pageant also crowned Kylee Johnson as Miss National Orange Show Outstanding Teen 2012.

About the National Orange Show Events Center

The National Orange Show Events Center is the Inland Empire's premier source of entertainment and all-inclusive event solutions. The center's multi-use, 120 acre facility offers 150,000 square feet of indoor space and has hosted concerts, banquets, and prestigious events such as the Wine and Food Under the Stars, The Pacific Rim International Wine Competition, and The Assistance League of San Bernardino's Headdress Ball. With the historic tradition of the annual citrus fair at the heart of the organization, the National Orange Show Events Center is at the forefront of the events industry while working to maintain strong community connections.
